THE VISA CANCELLATION MAY BE INVALID

PARISH PATIENCE IMMIGRATION lawyers recently won a TEST CASE in the courts challenging the validity of notices under section 20 of the E.S.O.S. Act. This important victory may help many overseas students across Australia and overseas whose visas were cancelled during the last 5 years because of a section 20 notice.

PARISH PATIENCE IMMIGRATION will give a FREE initial consultation for all section 20 E.S.O.S. Act cases, to determine if your section 20 notice is or was valid. For advice about all other immigration matters, a consultation fee of $165 will apply.

PARISH PATIENCE IMMIGRATION was established in 1888, and is one of Australia's leading immigration law firms. The firm has a team of lawyers and registered migration agents specialising in all aspects of student visas. The firm also has a large team of professionals who deal with all areas of immigration law, from initial visa applications all the way to High Court appeals.

"Sometimes doing what you think is best can be the worst thing to do. Common sense is not always the right legal response. The most important stage of your visa cancellation process is the initial response to the notice. When your whole future is at stake, don't wait until it's too late to get quality legal advice." said Nick McNally, senior immigration lawyer.
